Refining

1. For the past few months SMV storage facilities have been overstocked with gasoline and other petroleum products which the Soviets have been unable to dispose of on the Austrian market. Sometime in February 1951 an SMV official requested the Central Commercial Bureau of USIA to find foreign customers for this surplus stock and indicated the SMV would accept either schillings or hard currency in payment. Meanwhile the Soviets have temporarily curtailed production of refined products until the SMV storage depots can be cleared of this surplus. In particular, they have ordered a 25 percent cut-back in production at the Lobau refinery.
2. Deliveries of sulfuric acid from Donau Chemie A.G. to the SMV during February 1951 totalled 122,710 kilograms, which was less than one-third the amount purchased the preceding month from this supplier. The following figures show how this sulfuric acid was allocated to the Soviet-controlled refineries:

Refinery	No. of Kilograms of Sulfuric Acid
Kledering	30,000
Shell	15,050
Vacuum Oil Company	46,240
Voessendorf	31,420

In addition to these deliveries the Vacuum Oil Company purchased two carloads of sulfuric acid directly from Donau Chemie.

3. During the month of March 1951 the SMV disbursed 122,194.59 schillings for the following sulfuric acid allocations which were purchased from Donau Chemie at a cost of 1,281 schillings per ton:

Personnel

9. The Soviets have hired a number of new oilfield workers at Matzen and Aderklaa many of whom have been assigned to construction projects being carried on by the SMV subsidiary firm Bau und Montage.
10. Sometime in the early part of April six Socialist white-collar employees at the Nova Denow refinery were dismissed from the positions they had held for over 25 years and were replaced by Communist Party members.
11. Schindelka, an Austrian Communist employee of the SMV Purchasing Office, was ordered to attend a two-week course of political instruction given in April by the KPÖe Central Committee. During this period Schindelka continued to draw his full salary.

25X1C

- 25X1C (1) Comment: This shipment, although addressed to Soviet [REDACTED] was actually delivered to the SMV Central Warehouse, Neusiedl a/d Zaya.

25X1A

- 25X1A Comment: [REDACTED] that the SMV Purchasing Office had discontinued wholesale tire purchases from Semperit. It is interesting to note that the Soviets, while continuing to buy tires from retail dealers, have apparently resumed the policy of ordering part of their requirements direct from the Semperit factory.

- 25X1A (2) Comment: This supplier cannot be accurately identified from available reference material.

- 25X1A (3) Comment: Possibly A. Sebek & Co., Vienna V, Ramperstorffergasse 37.

- (4) Comment: These supplies were purchased for the Nova Denow refinery.

- 25X1A (5) Comment: Possibly Franz Wilde, Schraubengrosshandlung, Vienna I, Rudolfsplatz 9.

- (6) Comment: Possibly identical with J. Poelzl's Soehne, Bruehl, Post Weitra, Lower Austria.
